Boston Educators Collaborative Registration Now Open

"As teachers, we may work in different kinds of schools, but our work, at its core, is the same: helping all students learn and grow. Participating in the Boston Educators Collaborative gives us a chance to collaborate with teachers we might not otherwise get to work with – sharing best practices, developing curricula, and getting better together. And it's the kind of PD teachers are asking for: teacher-led and grounded in practice." – Sydney Chaffee, 2017 National Teacher of the Year, Spring 2017 BEC Teacher Leader

What is the Boston Educators Collaborative?

- These courses:
 - Are content/grade band-specific in disseminating best practices
 - Are entirely teacher driven and led by someone who understands your experience
 - Foster collaboration between teachers from across sectors
- Five 3-hour sessions (15 hours)
- Free
- Dinner is provided
- Qualify for PDP points (or UMass graduate credit with $110 fee)

Which course will you take? Visit teachplus.org/BEC-registration

Full course descriptions are listed on the website. BPS teachers can also register on My Learning Plan.
